

ADTS Promotes Dick Lambert to Operations Coordinator, Midwest/West

MARCH 6, 2013 – Advanced Driver Training Services (ADTS) announced that Dick Lambert has been promoted to the role of Operations Coordinator, Midwest/West, responsible for coordinating driver safety programs for ADTS clients across the region. An ADTS employee since 1989, Lambert spent 33 years with the Illinois State Police focusing on traffic management and traffic patrol operations, retiring as captain. He previously served as an ADTS driver safety instructor, leveraging his traffic safety experience to help fleet drivers avoid crashes.

Lambert is an Illinois state-certified instructor in EVOC (Emergency Vehicle Operations Course) and taught the course at the Illinois State Policy Academy for 25 years. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy, the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center and Trinity International University.

ADTS is a leading provider of driver safety training services and products that include a full-day Driver Skill Enhancement program (combining classroom and behind-the-wheel instruction), one-to-one training for high-risk drivers, seminars, post-incident coaching and other consulting services, online training, and the OnRoads bimonthly driver safety magazine. For more details, visit www.adtsweb.com or contact the company at 1-800-486-ADTS or info@adtsweb.com.

###